NARRATIVE:

Delacruz, a documented member of the "Southside Watts" street gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20 and includes threatening/disuading a witness by force, possession controlled substance, carry a concealed weapon in vehicle w/prior, possession of controlled substance, and violation of supervised release. Delacruz has served three prison terms, the longest being three years for carry a concealed weapon in vehicle w/prior. He was released most recently, to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on 03/11/2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2013 after Delacruz absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Delacruz qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substance is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, status as an active gang member, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
